Sleep problems?

When we don't get enough sleep, we feel tired during the day and we find it difficult to work or study. Sometimes we don't sleep because we go to bed and ¹think about our problems. Sometimes there's another reason.

There are sleep labs where doctors study sleep problems and you can spend a night at one of the centres. What happens there? Well, you ²_____ the centre in the evening and a nurse meets you and takes your personal details, then you ³_____ a doctor to arrive. You ⁴_____ the doctor about your health and about your sleep problems. After that, the nurse takes you to your room. People often watch TV or ⁵_____ music in their room until they want to go to sleep.

When you're asleep, a computer studies how you sleep and records the information. After your night at the sleep centre, doctors ⁶_____ your sleep information on the computer.

Do you have problems with your sleep? You can contact a sleep centre and ⁷_____ more information. Some centres ⁸_____ your time when you do a sleep study.

an artist an exhibition a painting a statue a theatre

1 an artist

2 a painting

3 an exhibition

4 a theatre

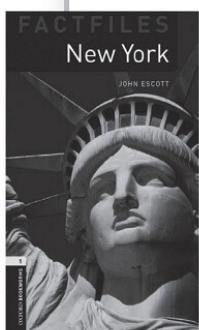

5 a statue

- 2 Read the extract from Factfiles: New York. It describes five museums and art galleries in Manhattan, an area of New York.

There are more than sixty museums in Manhattan. Some stay open late one or two evenings in the week, and some are free.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art – '5,000 years of art' – is

New York's biggest museum, and is on Fifth Avenue. It has three floors with thousands of paintings, statues and other things. Titian, El Greco, Monet, Cezanne, and Rousseau are just some of the names in the Metropolitan Museum. There is a garden of statues, too.

Perhaps you are interested in American artists. At the Whitney Museum of American Art at 945 Madison Avenue you can see pictures by Edward Hopper, Georgia O'Keeffe, Jasper Johns, Willem de Kooning and many more American artists.

The Museum of Modern Art (MoMA) is at 11 West 53rd Street. It has the world's biggest collection of modern art. There are six floors of pictures, photographs and statues. Two of the most famous pictures are Monet's Water Lilies and Picasso's Les Demoiselles d'Avignon.

The Museum of the City of New York on Fifth Avenue, at 103rd Street, tells the story of New York from its beginning. Watch the Timescapes movie, and visit the exhibition Perform about the New York theatre.

The Guggenheim Museum is also on Fifth Avenue, at 88th Street. The museum opened in 1959. You can see the work of Picasso, Kandinsky, Modigliani and other modern artists in this strange but wonderful museum.

Shopping past and present

A few years ago you could drive to the centre of an American town, look at what was in the shops, get help from a shop assistant, and pay for things with ¹cash / sales. Today there are small food shops in some town centres, but most people don't buy their meat from a local ²newsagent's / butcher's, their daily newspaper from the local ³newsagent's / discount or their bread from the local ⁴baker's / shopping centre. They prefer to ⁵spend / cash their money in big supermarkets or ⁶sales / shopping centres, or they shop from home.

Now people do more and more shopping ⁷centres / online. In 2012, it was 22% of food shopping and 37% of shopping for clothes, but every year it's more. Around 71% of American men and 66% of American women shop on the internet. It's very easy to find big ⁸cash / discounts and save money. You don't need to stand outside and wait for shops to open in the ⁹sales / discounts, and you can ¹⁰return / spend things that you don't like.

8.2 Journeys

Vocabulary transport

- 1 Match each text 1–4 to two photos a–h.

1 Mary

I work in a café in the centre of York, but I live fourteen miles away in Pocklington. There's a bus to York every hour, and when I first moved here I took the bus to work. Last summer I decided to get fit so I bought a bike. Now I cycle every day – it takes about an hour and it saves money.

2 Diana

My parents live in York, but I'm at university in London. I usually go back to York once a month. I take the underground to King's Cross railway station and get the train there. There are regular trains to York – one every half-hour and the journey takes under two hours.

3 Jacob

I don't often use public transport – it's quite expensive and not very comfortable. York is a small city and I prefer to get around the city on foot. I like walking and it helps me to keep fit. If I go out in the evening to a restaurant or to the theatre, I usually take a taxi home.

4 Artur

I'm from Poland and so is my girlfriend, Maggie. We work in York and only go back to Poland once or twice a year. We've got a car, but we don't drive to Poland – we go by plane. There's an airport near York and there are flights to Poland three times a week.

OCTOPUS CARDS

Octopus cards are travel cards which people buy and use to travel on public transport in Hong Kong. You ¹*have to / don't have to* have one to travel around; however, they are very useful. You ²*should / shouldn't* think about buying a card when you arrive. They save time because you ³*shouldn't / don't have to* stand in queues or find money to buy single journey tickets.

You can use the cards on all kinds of public transport. You can also use them in some taxis – but you ⁴*should / shouldn't* always ask the taxi driver when you get into the taxi. You ⁵*should / shouldn't* ask at the end of your journey.

You ⁶*have to / don't have to* show your card to anyone when you travel. You just ⁷*have to / should* hold your card near a machine called an Octopus reader at the beginning and end of your journey.

Octopus cards are popular with local people and visitors, and you can buy the cards at any train station. You ⁸*don't have to / shouldn't* lend your card to other people and you ⁹*should / shouldn't* tell the Octopus company if you lose your card.

marry quarrel silent will

- When two people are in love, they sometimes _____.
_____.
- When someone dies, they leave their money to someone in their _____.
_____.
- You can't hear anything when everything is _____.
_____.
- When people are very angry with each other, they often _____.
_____.

- 2 Look at this picture. Do you think the two men like each other?

- 3 Read an extract from The Silent Brothers, one of the stories in Stories from the Five Towns by English author Arnold Bennett. It is about two brothers, John and Robert. They live in the same house but they have not said a single word to each other for ten years. Then their friend, Mr Liversage, brings a letter from their sister Mary, who died three months before.

You are both very stupid, John and Robert, and I've often said so. Nobody understands why you quarrelled like that about Annie Emery. Your life is difficult, but you've also been very unkind to Annie. She's waited ten years already. So, John, if you marry Annie Emery, I shall give all my money to you. And Robert, if you marry her, I shall give it all to you. And you must be married in twelve months' time. And if neither of you marry her, then I give all my money to Miss Annie Emery, businesswoman, of Duck Bank, Bursley.

Mary Ann Bott, widow

'There. That's all,' Liversage finished.

'Let me see,' said John. Liversage gave him the will and he looked at it carefully.

Robert walked around the table and looked at the paper in his brother's hand.

- 4 Complete the phrases with the names of characters from the story.

Annie John Liversage Mary Robert

- _____ had a lot of money.
- _____ and _____ were in love with Annie.
- _____ is a businesswoman.
- _____ asks _____ not to say anything.
- _____ thinks the brothers are stupid.
- _____ knew about the will before the brothers read it.

- 5a What happens next? Read the sentences and match them to the pictures. Then put them in the right order.

- 'Mr Hessian!' she cried. —
- 'There. That's all.' —
- 'I don't want the money, dear,' said Annie.
'They can keep their twelve thousand pounds.' —

- b Answer the questions.

- Will Annie marry one of the two brothers? Why (not)?
- Who do you think will get Mary's money?
- Will the two brothers start speaking to each other again?

All three men were silent for a few minutes. Each was afraid to speak, and even afraid to look at the others.

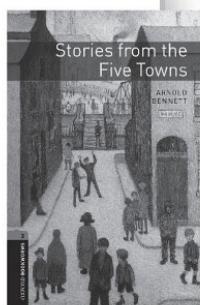

'Well, I must go,' said Liversage, standing up.

'I say,' said Robert. 'You won't say anything about this to Annie, will you?'

'I will say nothing,' agreed Liversage. (But it was wrong of him to say this, because Annie already knew.)

The two brothers sat and thought for a long time.

Ten years before, when Annie was a woman of twenty-three, without family, she started a business for herself, which was a bookshop. John was in love with her, but so was Robert. And the two men quarrelled.

4 Complete the text with a/an or (-).

On a typical working day I'm usually in a hurry and there's only time for ¹ — coffee and ² — yoghurt at home. I'm trying to eat more ³ — fruit, so I take ⁴ — apple or ⁵ — pear to eat in the car.

I work in a busy newspaper office and there isn't time for a long lunch. I get ⁶ — sandwich and ⁷ — bottle of water from the staff canteen and I have them at my desk. I try not to eat between meals, but people often bring ⁸ — cakes to work when it's their birthday, so sometimes I have ⁹ — cake and ¹⁰ — cup of coffee.

Dinner is my main meal of the day. That's usually something like ¹¹ — chicken with ¹² — salad or ¹³ — vegetables. I don't eat after dinner, but I do occasionally have ¹⁴ — glass of milk before I go to bed because I think it helps me to sleep.

5 Complete the conversation between Elizabeth (E) and the assistant (A) with some or any.

- E Hi, two chicken sandwiches on brown bread, please.
 A Sorry, we don't have ¹ any chicken today.
 E Do you have ² — beef?
 A Let me check ... Yes, there's ³ — beef. What would you like with it?
 E I'd like ⁴ — salad, please. But please don't put ⁵ — tomatoes or onions in the sandwiches.
 A Anything else?
 E Yes, can I have ⁶ — mushroom soup?
 A Of course. And would you like ⁷ — drinks?
 E Two bottles of Coke, please.
 A I'm sorry, we haven't got ⁸ — cola – just water or lemonade.
 E Two bottles of lemonade then.

6 Put the words in the right order to make sentences. Each sentence has one extra word that you don't need.

1 like / I'd / please / some / sandwich, / a .
I'd like a sandwich, please.

2 some / there / Are / noodles / any ?

3 an / don't / eggs / We / any / have .

4 bottles of water / some / They / a / need .

5 yesterday / Mark / any / made / cakes / some .

6 there / Is / pasta / a / any ?

7 didn't / I / some / this morning / have / breakfast / any .

2 Order the amounts from small to big.

a lot of none not many not much quite a lot of some

1 none

2 _____ / _____

3 _____

4 _____

5 _____

3 Choose the correct answer to each question.

1 A How much fruit do you buy each week?

B Oh, we buy a lot / a lot of fruit every week.

2 A How many eggs are there in the cupboard?

B None / Not much – I forgot to buy them.

3 A How many potatoes do we need for the soup?

B Not many / Not a lot of – just three or four.

4 A How much money do you spend in the supermarket?

B We spend quite a lot / much – food is very expensive.

5 A How many recipe books do you have?

B Some / A lot of, but not many – I don't like cooking.

6 A How much salt did you put in this soup?

B Not many / Not much. I never use a lot / a lot of salt.

4 Choose the correct word or phrase to complete the article.

How 'many/much money does it cost to stay healthy?

Food prices today mean that ² some / much people in the UK are finding it difficult to buy food. The British Heart Foundation (BHF) wants people in the UK to be healthy. They asked 2,444 people about the food they bought, and they found that ³ quite a lot of them / none (42%) didn't have the money they needed to eat healthily.

Doctors say that people need to eat ⁴ not many / a lot of fruit and vegetables every day to stay healthy. The BHF spoke to adults who earn under £10,000 to find out ⁵ how many / how much of them eat fruit and vegetables regularly. The answer is ⁶ a lot of them / not many, because fresh fruit and vegetables are expensive.

Good food is important for good health and the BHF has ⁷ some / not many ideas for people who don't have ⁸ much / some money to spend on food, or for people who just want to eat well and save money. There's a meal plan to show how two people can eat healthily for under £50 a week.

You don't have to be a great cook – there are ⁹ lot of / a lot of simple recipes on the website to try. ¹⁰ A lot of / None of the recipes use expensive ingredients and they don't take ¹¹ much / many time to make. You can visit the BHF website and see people trying ¹² some / none of the recipes in their own homes.

It's easy to 1 give money to charity, but why not think about doing something good for others? In Catherine Ryan Hyde's book, Pay It Forward, the main character is Trevor, a boy with an idea to 2 improve the world by helping people. He thinks that when someone does a good thing for you, you shouldn't do a good thing for them. Instead, you should 'pay it forward' and do a good thing for three more people.

The story shows us how to make changes with little things. So how can you 'pay a good thing forward'?

Why not:

- 3 look after someone with their shopping?
- 4 visit an elderly neighbour and talk to them?
- 5 walk a neighbour's dog and take it for a walk?
- 6 make a cake to sell for charity?

- 2 Read an extract from Les Misérables, a novel by the French writer Victor Hugo. The novel is set in France at a time when life is very hard for poor people.

'Come in,' said the bishop. The bishop was a kind man; everyone in the town of Digne knew that. Poor people, hungry people, miserable people – they all came to the door of the bishop's house.

The bishop's sister looked at the man at the door that night, and she was afraid.

'Look at him!' she whispered to the bishop. 'He is a big man and a dangerous one. He carries a yellow card, so he was once a prisoner – a bad man.'

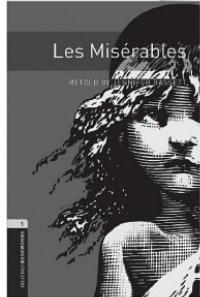

But the bishop did not listen. 'Come in, my friend,' he said to the man at the door. 'Come in. You must eat dinner with us, and sleep in a warm bed tonight.'

The man stared at the bishop. 'My name is Jean Valjean,' he said. 'I was a prisoner in Toulon for nineteen years. Here is my yellow card, see? People everywhere shut their doors in my face – but not you. Why not?'

'Because, my friend, in the eyes of God you are my brother,' said the bishop, smiling. 'So, come in, and sit down by our fire.' The bishop turned to his sister. 'Now, sister, our friend Jean Valjean needs a good dinner. Bring out the silver dinner plates. It's a special night tonight.'

'Not the silver plates?' whispered the bishop's sister. Her eyes went quickly to Jean Valjean, then back to the bishop's face.

'Yes, the silver plates,' said the bishop. 'And the silver candlesticks, too.'

Text extract from Oxford Bookworms: Les Misérables.

Presenter Our next topic is adult learning. It's autumn now and many adult education classes are starting. Did you know that there are over 5,700 classes at schools and colleges here in Ireland? There are lots of different courses to choose from - you can learn to write a book, play the guitar, or speak a foreign language. Today we want you to tell other listeners about your courses.

Presenter OK, let's talk to caller one, Jade from Clonee near Dublin. Hello, Jade. How are you?

Jade Hi, fine thanks.

- Presenter And what do you think of adult education courses?
Jade Oh, I think they're a great way to learn new skills. I wanted to make my own jewellery so I joined a course at Hartstown Community School - this is my second year. I go on Tuesday evening for two hours. It isn't expensive and I really enjoy it because the people are really friendly. My friends love my course, too, because now I make jewellery for them!

Presenter Thank you Jade. Now to caller two, Marco. Why did you decide to do a course, Marco?

Marco Er. Well I'm from Italy, but I work in Kildare now and I don't know many people. I want to make new friends. My class is Zumba - it's an exercise class. The first class was last Wednesday. It was great fun - there were about 16 students - and our teacher was very good. We all had coffee together after the class.

Presenter That sounds great, Marco. I hope you make lots of new friends. We have Dermot from Cork. Hi Dermot. Tell us about your course.

Dermot Hi. Well, I'm doing a course to get a qualification. My company has an office in Mexico and I want to work there so I go to a Spanish course on Mondays and Thursdays.

Presenter Do you think the courses are a good idea, Dermot?

Dermot Oh, I think they're great. There's a lot of homework on a course like mine - and I have an exam at the end of the year, but I really enjoy going to the college.

Presenter Good luck with your exam Dermot, and thank you for talking to me. For information about adult education courses in your area, visit the Learning Ireland website. Now for a song...

Thank you for choosing the Stratford-upon-Avon audio walking tour. The walking tour takes two hours, but you can stop and visit some of the buildings and places of interest on the way.

We start our tour at the tourist information centre on Bridgefoot. Go out of the door and turn right. Go straight on for ten minutes. When you get to Henley Street go past the post office and the library. The next building on your right is William Shakespeare's Birthplace. Shakespeare was born there. The house is open to visitors from March to November.

Opposite Shakespeare's Birthplace is a small street called The Minories. Walk down here and turn left into Wood Street. At the end of Wood Street, turn right and walk to Nash House. Nash's House was the home of Shakespeare's granddaughter, Elizabeth. It was next to New Place – the house where Shakespeare died. Nash's House and New Place are open from March to November, too.

After Nash's House go straight on and the next building in Church Street is the old grammar school where Shakespeare was a student. It is still a school today.

Now, walk to the end of Church Street and go left. Walk past Hall's Croft – which was once the home of Shakespeare's daughter, Susanna. At Avonbank Gardens turn left and soon you can see the river. Walk along the river for 10 minutes. The next big building you see is the Royal Shakespeare Theatre. You can visit the theatre or have a meal in the theatre restaurant. In the evening you can see a play by Shakespeare. The theatre is usually very busy, so it's a good idea to buy tickets early.

In front of the theatre is Bancroft Gardens. Why not sit in the gardens and relax after your walk?

We hope you enjoyed your walking tour of Stratford-upon-Avon. Please write and tell us.

B They're OK. I've got a dance video that I use sometimes.
- A My kids want one of those tennis games – they say the games are a good way to keep fit, but I don't know about that. They can play tennis in the park.
B Yes, but only in the summer! With a video game you can exercise inside all year.
- A That's true, but I think children today spend a lot of time in front of computer and TV screens and they need to do more things outside. Things were different when we were kids.

B I agree with you. But the world is a different place now.

- 2 A What do you think of this company in London? They use mobile phone technology to check what their workers eat, when they exercise, and how they sleep. And they also give them an exercise plan. I think it's a great idea.
B I don't agree with you.
A Why not?
B Well, for me, people's health is their business.
A I don't know about that. When people aren't healthy they can't work and companies lose money.
B That's right, of course. But do people really want their bosses to tell them what to eat and when to exercise?
A Maybe not.

Jeff Hi, Anna. When did you get back from your holiday?

Anna Last night. I'm really tired though – it was a long flight back.

Jeff Oh dear. Did you have a good time in the USA?

Anna Yes, I did, thanks. I had a fantastic time.

Jeff Did John go with you?

Anna No, he didn't, unfortunately. He had to work, so I went with Jenny – she's an old friend from university.

Jeff Oh right. So, what did you do?

Anna Well, first we flew to Boston, then we rented a car and drove down the coast to Miami.

Jeff Really? How far did you drive?

Anna It was about 1,300 miles, I think.

Jeff Wow! And did you stay in hotels?

Anna Sometimes, but usually we went to campsites or small guest houses. It was good because we met lots of people that way.

Jeff So, what was your favourite place?

Anna It's a bit difficult to say because we had a great time everywhere, but my favourite place was probably South Carolina – it was really beautiful and I loved Charleston.

Adam OK, and how long does it take?

Ticket seller About 26 hours. It arrives at 15.30 on Wednesday.

Adam Right. How much is a sleeper ticket?

Ticket seller Would you like a single or a return?

Adam Just a single please.

Ticket seller OK, then tourist class tickets cost 600 rand. There aren't any first class sleepers on the train.

Adam 600 rand ... OK. Which platform does the train leave from?

Ticket seller It goes from that platform over there.

Adam Thank you.

Steve Good morning and welcome to Steve in the Kitchen. My name's Steve Shaw. In today's show we have two of the country's top chefs. Let me introduce my first guest, Marcus Candy, from Le Resto, one of the country's top restaurants. Hello, Marcus and welcome to the studio. How are you?

Marcus Fine, thanks Steve. It's really good to be here.

Steve What are you cooking for us today?

Marcus Well, everyone loves roast chicken and today I'm doing my own special milk chicken with lemon roasted potatoes.

Steve That sounds very nice. Is the recipe difficult?

Marcus No, it isn't – it's very simple. Anyone can follow it and make a perfect milk chicken.

Steve Does it take a long time to prepare?

Marcus No, not long. You need 10 minutes to get everything ready, then 45 minutes to roast the chicken in the oven. And while the chicken is roasting, you can make the roasted lemon potatoes.

Steve OK, while Marcus is cooking we're going to be reading and answering your food questions, so please email or text them to our website. OK, Marcus, let's get cooking. What ingredients are you using?

Marcus Well, for the milk chicken, you need a chicken, half a litre of milk, a spoon of olive oil, ten pieces of garlic, salt, and some herbs.

Steve Do you want me to help?

Marcus Yes, please. I need you to wash the chicken first. Then use this knife to cut it into two halves.

Steve Here you are.

Marcus Thanks. Now I'm putting some olive oil over the chicken and some salt – sea salt is the best salt to use. The next thing we do is put the grill on and grill the chicken for five minutes until it is nice and brown.

Steve Is this one of your own recipes, Marcus?

Marcus No, this is one of my mother's. She made it on Sundays, when all the family were together. It was one of my favourites and I thought your viewers would like it. OK, the chicken looks ready now, so I'm going to put it in this roasting pan and add the garlic and herbs. Then we put the milk over the chicken, and put the whole thing in the oven for about 45 minutes.

Marcus Now for the lemon roasted potatoes – this is a Greek recipe, also one of my mother's. For this you need ...

A Good idea. Use my pen. Right, let's go through the list. First, we'll need to organize a bus to take everyone there.
C Why don't I do that? I've got more time than you and I can phone the bus company this afternoon.
A Perfect. Now what about a poster to tell everyone about the trip? I can write the text but I'm not very good at art.
C Let me help you. We can design the poster together on my new tablet.
A Thanks, Carlos.
B Would you like me to print the posters? I can use the printer at the university.
